“We are pleased to announce our Full Year 2024 financial results which reflect the resilience of our diversified business model. The underlying trends of our P&L remained solid while our cost increase of 10 per cent was driven by targeted investments in digital transformation, network expansion and operational efficiency which have positioned us for long-term growth. Amidst ongoing external headwinds, NCBA's strategic imperatives have enabled us to deliver shareholder value," remarked Mr. John Gachora, NCBA Group Managing Director.

The Group`s regional subsidiaries in Uganda, Tanzania, and Rwanda delivered a combined profitability of KES 3.2 billion, 7 per cent up year on year; while the combined non-banking subsidiaries including the Investment Bank, Bancassurance, Leasing and Insurance recorded a 36 per cent year on year significant growth contributing KES 1.2 billion to Group profitability.

Strategic Imperatives

The Group through its smart network roll out enabled customer access to superior services reaching 119 branches across the region with 10 new locations in Kenya, Rwanda and Uganda. Additionally, through the Kenya business agency banking partnership with Postbank, 476 agents and 96 branches country-wide were onboarded while the diaspora banking team scaled the Global customer footprint in Australia, Middles East and USA.

NCBA retained its Asset Finance Leadership with a market share of 35 per cent driven by product innovation and scheme agreements with several vehicle dealers including Isuzu, CFAO, Simba and Inchape. The Group`s Corporate Banking position with a deposit base of KES 210 billion is expected to strengthen with a revamped internet banking platform.

The Group was recognized as an employer of choice, attracting top-tier talent and ensuring growth through structured learnings hours and leadership development. NCBA`s Go Getter internship program onboarded 80+ young potential employees and its gender balance of 51:49 (Male/Female), demonstrated a strong commitment to diversity. The training partnerships with Microsoft and Amazon Web Services for NCBA's over 3,500 employees is poised to accelerate the Group`s digital transformation efforts.

NCBA made progress in implementing its 15 Change The Story platform sustainability commitments by;

- Planting over 426,678 trees with partners.
- Recycling 73 per cent of waste in select offices.
- Mobilizing KES 6.5 billion of Green Financing.
- Setting up 6 Electric Vehicles charging stations across Kenya, Rwanda and Uganda.
- Enlisting 20 per cent of the Group`s supply chain towards women and youth.
- Training 500+ employees on sustainability.
- Empowering 6,000 women and youth through education scholarships, mentorship and business skills development.
- Championing sports development through Golf and Cycling sponsorships impacting 11,500+ participants.

NCBA`s insurance subsidiary (formerly AIG Kenya) rebrand last week signifies successful integration into the NCBA Group PLC family. The new brand will leverage on the strengths of NCBA and become more competitive with amplified positioning in the market.
